The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Ghana presents its compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America in Accra, and wishes to express its willingness to consider accepting the transfer from the United States to Ghana of third-country nationals from West African countries present in the United States.

For purposes of this note, "West African countries" is defined as Benin, Burkina Faso, Cabo Verde, Côte d'Ivoire, The Gambia, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Liberia, Mali, Niger, Nigeria, Senegal, Sierra Leone, and Togo. The Government of Ghana would retain complete discretion to accept or reject the transfer of any given individual proposed by the Government of the United States of America.

The Government of Ghana assures the Government of the United States of America that it intends to treat any third-country nationals transferred from the United States to Ghana in a manner that is consistent with its obligations under the Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at Geneva on July 28, 1951; the Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at New York on January 31, 1967; the OAU Convention Governing the Specific Aspects of Refugee Problems in Africa, done at Addis Ababa on September 10, 1969; the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, adopted in New York on December 10, 1984; any other international legal obligations; the 1992 Constitution, laws, regulations, and immigration and visa policies of Ghana. Consistent with this intention, the Government of Ghana assures the Government of the United States of America that it would treat any third-country nationals transferred from the United States to Ghana in a manner that is in accordance with its international legal obligations and that the third-country nationals removed to Ghana would not be subjected to persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion, or torture in Ghana or in any country to which the Government of Ghana may further transfer them.

The Government of Ghana may decide, at any time, that it is no longer willing to consider accepting the transfer from the United States to Ghana of third-country nationals present in the United States and in such case expects to communicate that decision in writing to the Government of the United States of America.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Ghana avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Embassy of the United States of America in Accra the assurances of its highest consideration.
