

No 492/25

The Embassy of the United States of America in Yaounde presents its compliments to the Ministry of External Relations of the Republic of Cameroon and has the honor to propose the following understanding between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of Cameroon (hereinafter referred to individually as a "Participant" and collectively as "Participants").

- The Participants intend to arrange the transfer from the United States to the Republic of Cameroon of certain third-country nationals present in the United States. This may include third-country nationals who raise national security or public safety concerns.
- The Government of the United States of America may in its complete discretion propose to the Government of the Republic of Cameroon the transfer of such third-country nationals, and the Government of the Republic of Cameroon may in its complete discretion consider accepting such a proposal in whole or in part.
- The Government of the Republic of Cameroon assures the Government of the United States of America that it intends to treat any third-country nationals transferred from the United States to the Republic of Cameroon in a manner that is in accordance with its obligations under the Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at Geneva on July 28, 1951; the Protocol Relating to the Status of Refugees, done at New York on January 31, 1967; the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, adopted in New York on December 10, 1984; any other international legal obligations; and its national constitution, laws, regulations, and immigration and visa policies.

Consistent with this intention, the Government of the Republic of Cameroon assures the Government of the United States of America that it would treat any third-country nationals transferred from the United States to Cameroon in a manner that is in accordance with its international legal obligations and that the third-country nationals removed to the Republic of Cameroon would not be subjected to persecution on account of race, religion, nationality, membership in a particular social group, or political opinion, or torture in the Republic of Cameroon or in any country to which the Government of the Republic of Cameroon may further transfer them.

- Subject to the availability of funds and applicable laws and regulations, the Government of the United States intends to provide support for assisted voluntary return programs.
- The Participants intend to develop, to the extent appropriate, operating procedures to assist with implementing this understanding.
- The Participants intend to consult to resolve any questions about interpretation or implementation of this understanding.
- Either Participant may discontinue its participation in this understanding at any time but, in such case, intends to provide written notice to the other Participant through diplomatic channels.
- Nothing in this understanding is intended to create any obligation upon the Participants to disburse or obligate funds. All actions taken under this understanding are subject to the availability of funds and the applicable laws and regulations of both Participants.

If this proposal is acceptable to the Government of the Republic of Cameroon, the Government of the United States of America proposes that this note, together with the affirmative reply from the Government of the Republic of Cameroon, would constitute an understanding between the two governments that would become effective upon the date of the Government of the Republic of Cameroon's reply note.

The Embassy of the United States of America avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Ministry of External Relations the assurances of its highest consideration.
